To whom it may concern:

We received an email from your organization on Dec. 9 that was titled "Second Notice" indicating that it was the second time that information concerning a "Brady Cops List" had been requested under public records laws. We have no record of any previous request for this information as our goal is to acknowledge all public records requests within 24 hours of their receipt when possible.

Pursuant to your request, please be advised that no such "Brady Cop List" exists. Any and all relevant information about a police officer or any witness that may affect their credibility is provided to a Defendant and their counsel as appropriate for their individual case.

Thank you for your inquiry.
