To Whom it May Concern:

In response to your public records request for “any list [our] office has compiled, maintains, or references... ‘Brady Cops,’” no such public record exists as this office does not compile or maintain such a list.

Very truly yours,

Ebony Wilkerson

DAYTONA BEACH — An attorney for Ebony Wilkerson is arguing that law enforcement knew of her critically low blood sugar when she drove her van with her three children inside into the ocean but chose to ignore it. The assistant public defender also says investigators changed a report to say she blocked a rescuer, a fact which was pivotal in charging her with attempted murder.
