Thank you for your request. One of my Senior Deputies served on a committee that developed statewide guidelines for processing of Brady/Giglio Officer matters and so we are very familiar with the constitutional duties outlined in Brady/Giglio. This office has been very proactive in its approach to ensuring that we follow Brady/Giglio requirements.

Our office has not created a list of so-called Brady-officers. However, whenever we obtain evidence that potentially involves Brady/Giglio and a police officer, our office will flag all files that are associated with that officer in any way. We then process each of those files in accordance with Brady requirements.

As to your expressed concern, I can report to you that we have conducted Brady evidence reviews involving police officers. We have made determinations that Brady evidence exists that relates to some officers. We have not called any of those officers as witnesses and none of those officers continue to work within law enforcement.

Sincerely

Doug Marteeny
